SEAT AT WASHINGTON.

The Capital's Centennial Anniversary Celebrated With Eclat.

NOTABLE GATHERING OF STATESMEN

President Participated With His Cabinet, Senators, Representatives and Governors of Many States. A Magnificent Procession.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The national capital was in gala attire in celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the seat of federal government at Washington. The president and his cabinet, the senate and house of representatives, the federal judiciary, the governors of many states, and a great concourse of citizens and visitors joined in the elaborate festivities of the day. Perhaps never again will this generation witness such a magnificent gathering of the heads of states and of the chief executive of the nation. One hundred years ago, the transfer of the seat of government was made from Philadelphia to Washington and the site previously selected by President Washington was taken possession of by the various branches of government, the senate and house holding their sessions here for the first time.

The program of the day began with a reception at 10 o'clock by President McKinley and members of his cabinet to the governors of the states and territories and the executive mansion. This was followed by the unveiling in the East room of the model of the proposed enlarged executive mansion, which is to be a lasting memorial of the celebration.

Reception at White House.

At 10:30 o'clock the president descended the west stairway with Secretary Hay at his side. Immediately following were the other members of the cabinet walking two and two, the only absentee being Attorney General Griggs. As the president and party entered the west corridor the Marine band orchestra, in dress uniform, struck up "Hail to the Chief." Governor Roosevelt of New York, who had been spending an hour with the president, came down a few minutes later and joined the other governors in the red parlor. As the orchestra struck up the inspiring strains of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," the reception began, the presentations being made by Colonel Bingham, United States army. Following is a list of the governors present: G. W. Atkinson, West Virginia; D. W. Bloxham, Florida (represented by Colonel F. Q. Brown); M. Barnes, Oklahoma; D. W. Jones, Arkansas; J. A. Mount, Indiana; C. S. Thomas, Colorado; E. W. Tunnell, Delaware; L. M. Shaw, Iowa; Llewellyn Powers, Maine; F. W. Rollins, New Hampshire; F. M. Voorhees, New Jersey; J. H. Taylor, Virginia; M. A. Otero, New Mexico; S. Steunenberg, Idaho; Governor Stone, Pennsylvania; E. Scofield, Wisconsin; D. L. Russell, North Carolina; Theodore Roosevelt, New York; A. E. Lee, South Dakota; N. O. Murphy, Arizona; William Gregory, Rhode Island; J. W. Smith, Maryland; W. M. Crane, Massachusetts; and W. W. Heard, Louisiana. Governor Stephens of Missouri was represented by Governor-elect Dockery and the lieutenant governor. Governor Stickney of Vermont was represented by Adjutant General W. H. Gilmore. The following ex-governors were also present: Lloyd Lowndes, Maryland; A. S. Bushnell, Ohio; A. W. Fly, Texas; and A. A. Markham, California. The program heretofore published was carried out in full.

Benton McMillan of Tennessee, who came on to attend the celebration, received a telegram announcing the death of Mr. McMillan's father at their home in Kentucky, and after paying his respects to the president left on the first train for home.

The Public Pageant.

The great public spectacle of the day was the parade and escort to the president from the White House to the east front of the capitol, where the president reviewed the marching thousands. At the head of the parade rode Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, chief officer in full uniform, mounted on a superb charger. His staff included Brigadier General Breckenridge and many other prominent officers, mounted and in uniform, presenting a brilliant appearance. The military forces participating included artillery, cavalry, marines and sailors. The governors of states and territories with their staffs marched in the order of the admission of states to the Union. Governor Tunnell of Delaware coming first. Following the governor came the Grand Army of the Republic

Spanish War Veterans, the Old Guards and specially invited guests.

The review was followed by an impressive gathering of the president and cabinet, the members of the senate and house and the judges of the United States supreme court in the hall of the house of representatives, where joint exercises were held commemorating the day. Speaker Henderson called the assemblage to order and Senator Frye, president pro tem. of the senate presided over the proceedings. The program at the capitol as previously published, was followed.

The evening ceremonies included a reception in honor of the governors of states and territories at the Corcoran gallery of art, at which the president and cabinet and representatives of all classes of life were present.

KILLED BY KUHN.

Two Officers Lose Their Lives Trying To Capture the Fugitive.

Logansport, Ind., Dec. 12.—Marvin Kuhns, the murderer, who escaped from the Ohio penitentiary and shot a policeman here Monday, shot and killed two officers who were trying to arrest him at Avilla.

Avilla is near Kuhn's home, in Noble county. A posse is in pursuit. Policeman Dean of this city, who was shot by Kuhns, Monday, is in a critical condition.

Saved His Savings.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—By throwing his back against the wall and opening fire with his revolver, John Conroy kept five years of his savings from the hands of thieves. He was attacked by three men and when he ceased firing one of the men who had assailed him was lying in front of him fatally wounded. Preparatory to leaving the city Conroy, who was a street car motorman, had withdrawn his savings amounting to nearly $500 from the bank and was on his way home when attacked.

Sent Back to Jury Room.

Eldorado, Kan., Dec. 12.—The Morrison jury was called into court after noon for the second time, but the foreman again reported no verdict. He presented a communication to Judge Shinn that led to a whispered consultation between the court and the attorneys on both sides. Judge Shinn again ordered the jury to continue its deliberations. Neither the court nor attorneys would make the contents of the communication public.

Good Feeling Restored.

Washington, Dec. 12.—After the cabinet meeting it was stated the good feeling which had existed between General Chaffee and Count Von Waldersee prior to the astronomical instrument incident had been restored, and that the two generals had since dined together very pleasantly.

LABOR IN PORTO RICO.

American Federation Will Take the Islanders Under Its Wing.

SEAT IN THE CABINET NOT WANTED.

Unalterable Opposition to Anti-Scale-Ping Bill—Federation Refused to Concur In Resolution to Reduce Tax on Beer—Resolutions.

Louisville, Dec. 12.—The A. F. L. took up the third clause of the resolutions with reference to labor unions of Porto Rico. Upon this matter the convention adopted a declaration recommending to all affiliated unions whose trade or calling is pursued in Porto Rico, that they take prompt action for the purpose of disseminating information in Porto Rico necessary to give the Porto Ricans opportunity to become allied with national or international trade associations in America. It was also recommended that the American national unions have their constitutions translated into the Spanish language and that the incoming executive council of the American Federation of Labor take action promptly to carry out the plan and purposes of the American labor movement in Porto Rico, appropriating $3,000 to carry this resolution into effect.

The convention concurred in resolutions previously presented, declaring unalterable opposition to the anti-scalping bill now before the committee on foreign and interstate commerce in both houses of congress. An animated discussion arose over a resolution for a labor portfolio in the cabinet, upon which the whole committee reported adversely. The adverse report of the committee was concurred in by a vote of 78 to 47, thus killing the resolution.

The convention took adverse action on a resolution instructing the executive council to prepare and endeavor to secure the passage of a bill in congress which will restrict immigration. A bill introduced in the house of representatives by Congressman William Astor Chanler of New York, designed to correct abuses suffered by seamen in the merchant marine, was endorsed by the convention. A resolution favoring the repeal of the Illinois state convict parole law was tabled. Resolutions advocating reduction of the tax on beer to its former levy of $1 per barrel, were non-concurred in, the committee stating that it "could not conceive that the brewery interests of the country need or desire any assistance from the Federation of Labor."

The following resolutions were concurred in: Favoring an amendment of the law to provide for only one class under which men shall be employed in the United States navy yards, at the standard rate of wages as received by the various unions in the district in which the navy yards are situated; favoring free school books in all the public schools of the country.

The Federation has received invitation from Washington, D. C., Scranton, Pa., and Niagara Falls, N. Y., for the holding of the convention next year. They were read by Secretary Frank Morrison, but no action was taken on them. A telegram was read from the Tile Layers' union of Philadelphia stating that that organization could not send a representative to the convention, as requested by Delegate Francis De Spaga, of the Philadelphia Yosaic Workers union. The telegram suggested that the dispute between the tile layers and the mosaic workers be submitted to arbitration.

Illinois Anti-trust Law.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—Judges Tuley, Waterman and Dunne of the circuit court handed down a decision in the corporation cases, involving the constitutionality of the anti-trust law of Illinois, in which the court ruled that corporations in Illinois must continue to make affidavits to the secretary of state that they are in no way connected with any trust or combination in restraint of trade. The decision in effect sustains that section of the anti-trust law which compels the filing under penalty of an affidavit from each corporation that it is innocent of connection with a trust. The decision involves the enforcement of fines against nearly 800 Illinois corporations which have refused to file the affidavits required by law.

Ashland, O., Dec. 12.—Eliza Childs of Albion, this county, learning that his grandfather was dead, started home from Barborton where he was employed. Not wishing to wait for a passenger train he attempted to board a freight train, fell under and was killed. His body was brought home and the two funerals were held at the same time.

TEST OF STRENGTH.

Caucus of Pennsylvania Republicans Will Be Interesting.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 12.—Announcement is made that the Republican caucus to agree upon a candidate for United States senator to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of M. S. Quay will be called to meet Tuesday night, Jan. 1, at 8 o'clock. The legislature meets in biennial session at noon that day. The Republican caucuses to select candidates for speaker of the house of representatives and president pro tem. of the senate will meet, it is stated, the previous night. The Republicans have a majority in both branches, but both factions of the Republican party are claiming control of the legislature, the anti-Quay Republican leaders asserting that they will be in the ascendancy by reason of an agreement with the Democrats. The legislature will vote for senator Jan. 25.

Against Landlordism.

Dublin, Dec. 12.—In the Nationalist convention, after resolutions had been adopted amending the constitution of the United Irish League and making the Nationalist convention an annual fixture, William O'Brien moved a strongly worded resolution in favor of the abolition of landlordism in Ireland and the transfer of the soil to the occupying proprietary. Ireland's struggle, he declared, should continue without ceasing until the landlords were forced to abandon their present intolerable system of dual control. One branch of the Irish league, continued Mr. O'Brien, will devote its time to bringing to the doors of landlords, land grabbers and their caste allies the convenience of landlordism. The resolution was adopted amid the utmost enthusiasm.

Owens Keeps His Secret.

Mattoon, Ills., Dec. 12.—Sheriff Myers of Edgar county has asked Governor Tanner to call out a company of infantry to guard the prison at Paris, where John Owens, murderer of James Hogue, is to be executed Dec. 21. Persistent efforts to secure information concerning the doomed man's relatives have failed. Once he admitted relationship to the Owens family of Kentucky. "It will do my family no good to learn the truth, nor me," he says, and intends to carry the secret to the grave.

Keeping Up to Date.

Berlin, Dec. 12.—In the reichstag, referring to the reports that a division of the German army had been recently armed with a new rifle, the minister of war, General Von Gossler, admitted, that, in order to keep abreast with modern requirements, the war office was negotiating with a Scandinavian inventor for the pattern of an automatic breech-loader. The pattern, however, had not yet been supplied.

German Paper Auctioned Off.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—The Illinois Staats Zeitung, a leading German newspaper, was sold at auction to Mrs. Margherita Raster, widow of Herman Raster, who was editor of the paper from 1867 to 1890. The property was bid in for $50,000, subject to a mortgage of $150,000, making the selling price over $200,000. Mrs. Raster was one of the heaviest creditors of the paper. The company will be reorganized at once.

General Alger Robbed.

Detroit, Dec. 12.—General Russell A. Alger, ex-secretary of war, was quite badly shaken up by a burglar in his home on West Fort street. The general was awakened by some one prowling about in his residence and started to investigate. General Alger fell heavily but sustained no injury. An investigation showed $300 worth of silverware had been taken.

Sleeping Beauty.

East Liverpool, O., Dec. 12.—Sadie Lewis, 18, of Lisbon, who had been asleep since Tuesday of last week, was awakened by the application of an electric battery. Three weeks ago she slept continuously 40 hours. Last summer she had a bicycle accident in which she injured her head, which is supposed to be the cause of her slumbers.

Switch Open.

Olean, N. Y., Dec. 12.—Passenger No. 30, from Oil City on the Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad ran into an open switch here and collided with some cars standing on the switch. The engine was badly wrecked. Fireman Patterson was killed and Engineer Kidd seriously injured. None of the passengers were injured.

Director of Lick Observatory.

San Francisco, Dec. 12.—The regents of the University of California have formally appointed Prof. W. W. Campbell director of the Lick observatory. Prof. Campbell has been acting as director since the death of President Keeler. The regents voted Mrs. Keeler the salary which would have been due her husband to June 1, $1,537.

ANARCHISTS CHEERED

Incendiary Remarks at a Benefit For Bresci's Family.

LIFE OF PRESIDENT THREATENED.

Alexander Horr Favors Assassination In Resistance to Any Attempt to Interfere With Free Speech. Jefferson Called an Anarchist.

New York, Dec. 12.—It is reported that 500 anarchists vociferously applauded, at a meeting on behalf of the family of Bresci the assassin, when one of their speakers threatened the life of President McKinley "should he attempt to interfere with free speech." The speaker was Alexander Horr, who announced his approval of assassination. The anarchists met in Everett hall, East Fourth street. They had obtained the hall by a ruse, which Harry Bimberg, the proprietor, resented when it became known to him. Emma Goldman went to Bimberg and offered to hire the hall, alleging it was wanted for a meeting of the "Social Science club." Bimberg did not recognize her and consented to accommodate the club.

John H. Cook had vigorously denounced the government when Bimberg asked leave to speak. He declared the hall had been obtained under false pretence. "If I hear any incendiary speeches I shall have the lights turned out," he added. "Sit down," "Sit down, capitalist," yelled the audience. "Do you want to interrupt free speech?" Bimberg sat down.

Alexander Horr arose and went on to say that society believed in government by the bayonet and that Jefferson was an anarchist. "If I were in Russia today," said he, "I should be an assassin. If any one in control of government here persists in prohibiting the right of free speech, if the mayor of the city does, or the governor of the state, or the president of the United States, he does it at his peril."

Municipal League.

Charleston, S. C., Dec. 12.—The fourth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities met in this city. The attendance at the opening session was large, among those present being: Mayor Johnson of Denver, president of the league; Maybury of Detroit, Gray of Minneapolis, Harbison of Hartford, and Hartenblower of Des Moines. Prof. Bemis, late of the University of Chicago, was also on the floor. The address of welcome to the city was delivered by Governor M. B. Sweeney, and Mayor Smith of this city extended the freedom of Charleston. The response of the league was delivered by President Johnson. Reports of several committees were read and referred. The afternoon session was devoted to the discussion of several topics in relation to municipal government.

Sultan All Smiles.

Constantinople, Dec. 12.—The Americans were the only foreigners at the day's convention at the Yildiz palace. The sultan sat between the grand vizier and the United States charge d'affairs, Mr. Griscom, and showed unusual cordiality. His majesty's display of excessive friendliness for Captain Colby M. Chester of the United States battleship Kentucky, is attributed to his desire to demonstrate that the visit of the Kentucky to Smyrna has produced no irritation. Some question has arisen in regard to an alteration of the clause in the contract for building a cruiser for Turkey in the United States concerning the supply of ammunition, but no importance is attached to it.

Fuss About Flour.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 12.—A sensation has been caused here by a report that the American minister at Rio Janeiro has requested the Brazilian government to increase the duty on Argentine flour. The Argentine exporters have sent a telegram to the Argentine minister at Rio requesting his interference to prevent the realization of a supposed American scheme. Garcia Merou, the minister of agriculture and former minister at Washington, says that Argentine flour is better than American and he has no fear of its competition.

Will She Be Welcomed.

Cincinnati, Dec. 12.—Mary Strauch, who left her home and mother in Tacoma, Wash., to join the Church of the Living God colony in Maine, has signed an agreement whereby all but $500 of her estate will never reach the church. She had originally declared her intention to turn over the entire sum to the church and an elder came here with her to get the money. Miss Strauch left for Maine.

THERE was a time when the inauguration of a Governor was a momentous occasion in Kentucky, but that was in the days when great party leaders were chosen for the Chief Executives. This business of reaching into the political grab-bag and electing the fittest thing picked up has chilled public interest.—Louisville Commercial.

The editor of the Commercial must have had Fugitive Taylor in mind when he penned the above. It fits the case to a dot. The memory of Taylor's brief and bloody reign ought to satisfy Kentuckians with Republican rule for decades to come.

REPUBLICAN FINANCIERING.

The announcement that the administration is arranging to extend the "benefits" of national banking to the most remote country districts, is enough to put life and fire into the bones of Andrew Jackson and re-suscitate the old guard of Democracy that gathered under his flag. Should this policy of financial expansion be carried into effect, it is to be hoped in the interest of the people (whose wishes are occasionally overlooked) that some method will be devised to insure an honest administration of the banks. The system of periodical "examination" has failed. The "inspection" business is wholly overdone. The country is alive with inspectors whose inspections are not even skin deep. Many an official investigation makes the inspector practically a participant in the steal. Every corporation and every commercial interest in the country has relied upon inspection as an unflinching remedy against fraud. But an army of inspectors cannot regulate the working of a system where corruption has full play. It often goes undetected, and sometimes unsuspected, until, as in the Newport affair, the mess begins to stink. And, then, inspection becomes a very simple affair.

THE HANNA-PAYNE GRAB.

Senator Clay, of Georgia, in a speech on the Hanna-McKinley shipping bill, laid bare the infamous character of the measure. One feature he directed attention to was the point that while the subsidy was to continue for twenty years yet ships built after five years will not be entitled to any of the grab. In other words the promoters and backers of the bill claim it is intended to encourage ship building, yet no ship built after five years is to receive any part of the subsidy, although the bounty is to run for the next twenty years. In closing his speech Senator Clay said:

In my opinion, this bill is vicious in principle. If the ship-owner is entitled to a bounty to aid him in his private business, cannot the farmer with equal justice demand a bounty from the public treasury on his corn, his wheat, cotton or other product? Let us not make this occasion the beginning of a carnival for extravagance and profligate and shameful squandering of public money. Let us not make it the beginning of a policy founded on favoritism in legislation and subsidies to favored classes. Let us not crush the farmer, the artisan or the plowman by bounties granted others by exactions upon them. These classes are entitled to as much consideration at the hands of the Government as the ship-owners. The principles of this bill are unjust, undemocratic and absolutely indefensible.

The funeral will take place Friday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church. Burial at Washington.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Will Only Strengthen the Testimony of Maysville Citizens.

The testimony which follows will stand the test of closest examination. Cross examination of such evidence will strengthen it. Proof of this nature is plentiful in Maysville and the most skeptical can hardly doubt the claim made for "The Little Conqueror" when placed face to face with the public utterances of friends, neighbors and local citizens. Read the experience given below. It may save you many hours of future trouble.

Mr. Pearce Mills, of 922 Fourth ave., says: "The experience Mr. Mills had with Doan's Kidney Pills gave him a high appreciation of their value. He procured them at J. Jas. The River and Harbors Committee has decided to appropriate $375,000 for the improvement of the Licking river. The proposed plan embraces the locking and damming of the stream and the removing of the obstacle at the "ripples." The money will be available as soon as the bill is passed by Congress, and the work will begin by spring.

Barney Connell, mate of the steamer Stanley, was wounded so seriously Tuesday morning that his life is despaired of. The steamer was on her trip up and ran in at Willis landing about six miles below Portsmouth. Here she put out a line to a tree. It proved rotten and the strain of the cable pulled it over on to the boat. Mate Connell was caught under it and knocked unconscious.

The U. S. Snagboat Woodruff tore out the ice piers at Portsmouth last week, and here comes the Ripley Bee now with this statement: "It would be a good thing if the ice piers at Ripley were 'tore out' or removed up the river three hundred yards at least. They have caused mud to accumulate on the grade, making it most impossible to get to the wharboat at times." The Bee made a loud appeal for the piers a few years ago. Subsequent events show that the engineer in charge of the work didn't know his business, and the money spent on the piers was simply squandered.

Mr. Hord Long, one of the most enthusiastic Democrats of that Democratic stronghold, Lewisburg precinct, is formally announced as a candidate for County Assessor. Mr. Long is not only thoroughly fitted for the position, but he pledges, if elected, to devote that time and attention to the discharge of his duties which this important office demands. No more could be asked, or expected, of any one.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation," were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful stomach, liver and kidney remedy. Cures dyspepsia, loss of appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, druggists.

In 1897 two Madison County farmers went to law over a twenty-dollar steer. The costs now reach into the thousands, and the case is still pending.

Messrs. W. H. Wells, C. W. Williams, J. A. French, J. E. Bland, M. Sweeny and W. W. McIlvaine were on the "breaks" at Cincinnati this week, selling tobacco.

Miss Minnie Ronsheim, who committed suicide at Cincinnati a few days ago, formerly lived at Ripley and had many friends in Maysville, where she often visited.

Mr. Marion Ryder, formerly a resident of Maysville, died this week at Butler, Ky., where he had lived for years. He was a brother of Messrs. W. H. and Frank T. Ryder and Mrs. Wm. E. Wood, of this city.

The formal announcement of Mr. W. H. Hawes as a candidate for County Assessor appears elsewhere in the BULLETIN. Mr. Hawes is one of the staunchest and most enthusiastic Democrats of the county, and is always right up in the front ranks when a campaign is on. In his precinct over 80 per cent. of the vote is Democratic. He is not only thoroughly fitted for the office he seeks but he is at the same time one of the most genial and courteous gentlemen in the county, with a host of friends who will rally to his support.

Quick Work.

Mr. I. M. Lane, the contractor, commenced work on the addition to the shoe factory on last Monday week. The hands lost two days on account of rain, but to-day he turns the building over completed. The addition is 30x44 feet, two stories high. The proprietors hope to be running by Jan. 1st.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR ASSESSOR.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for the office of Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic party. I am from the Lewisburg precinct, which, although the champion Democratic precinct of the county, has heretofore been ignored in the distribution of the offices, and my friends ask that she be recognized in this instance at least by my cordial support. If nominated, I will be elected; if elected, I will faithfully perform the duties of the office—see the people, and not simply copy the old books. HORD LONG.

We are authorized to announce W. H. HAWES, of Minerva precinct, as a candidate for County Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Comparisons are useful. The fit, style and quality of our CLOTHING with that bought elsewhere. It will result in much saving of money for you and we'll secure your custom. Our fall line is about complete and we direct special attention to our Overcoats at $12 and our Suits at $25.00.

FRENCH GARTERS.

A pretty collection of dainty Garters. Wide variety of designs and colors. Each neatly packed in decorated box. Make very pretty gifts and are only 25c.

FURS.

The warm Scarf and Muff would be welcomed by any woman as an addition to her wardrobe and doubly prized when received as a Christmas gift. Add a little money to your original price and buy only high grade furs. The difference between good and poor furs is this—when you put your money into poor furs they last a season but after that—what have you? Whereas good furs last for years if properly cared for. To-day women are wearing furs that belonged to their grandmothers. Good furs can be remodeled countless times. Here are some fluffy beauties that promise generous warmth in the face of biting blasts. Stylishly made, perfect in every detail.

Genuine Beaver Scarf, 6 tails and pretty chain fastening, $19.
Genuine Stone Marten Scarf, 8 large tails, very handsome, $22.
Beautiful stone Marten Collarette, lined with heavy brown satin, trimmed in handsome tails, $35.

Beautiful Black Marten Scarfs in two sizes, $18 and $12.
The ladies of Mason declare our line of furs to be the handsomest ever shown in Maysville. No need to go to foreign markets when here at home you can select the best.

The holiday rush is on. We'll try to take good care of you right up to Christmas Eve, have engaged extra help, will keep open every night next week, etc., but do all we can, buying is easier now than it will be later. So come to-day.

RUSSELL-LONG NUPTIALS.

The Home of Mrs. John Willett the Scene of a Happy Wedding Wednesday Afternoon at 1 O'clock.

The handsome home of Mrs. John Willett near Clark's Station was the scene of a pretty nuptial event Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock at which hour her cousin, Miss Carolyn Long, became the bride of Mr. C. D. Russell of this city, Elder W. W. Hall of the Christian Church officiating, assisted by the Rev. Hugh F. Searcy of the Baptist Church.

The bride, who is one of Mason's lovely and charming young ladies, was very beautiful in a costume of white organdy over white silk. She is the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Russell and is associated with his father and brother in the large wholesale grocery and liquor business.

The nuptials Wednesday were attended by a large number of the couple's relatives and intimate friends. The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion. Miss Willett presided at the piano. The attendants were Mr. John C. Kackley, of this city, and Miss Mayne Wilson, of Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell left on the 3:20 train for Cincinnati. On their return they will be at home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Russell, of East Third street.

The Need of Good Sheds

Is painfully evident on a good many farms in this section, especially in winter. This should not be, and need not be, if you are shy on sheds will take the trouble to run in and ask our prices. We have a good stock of common boards—plenty good enough for sheds—that we will sell you at a very low price. At our prices it is cheaper to own sheds than go without. Tobacco hogsheds a specialty.

More so than ever before is the enormous stock of goods I carry, but you can only get a full conception of the magnitude by coming and seeing for yourself, which all are specially invited to do. Being encouraged by my largely increased business of the last year my purchases for the season now at hand have been enormously heavy in order to meet the rapidly growing demands of my trade, which is not now confined to retailing exclusively, but I have a large and steadily growing

WHOLESALE TRADE,

Which has to be supplied with the better class of goods, that are not to be found in many of the jobbing houses. I was early in the market, which enabled me to make my purchases exclusively for cash—before the advance in prices of many of the leading articles. Therefore, I am prepared to successfully meet any and all competition. I handle nothing but the best goods, all of which I buy directly from the producers in large quantities at prices as low as any jobbing house in the State. I am always in position to sell the very best goods at prices as low, or even lower, than you pay for common, stale and trashy stuff at other places; besides I carry in stock many articles that can't be found in any other store in our city. Special attention is called to my very large and superior stock of

New Crop Plantation Molasses, Pure Lewis County Sorghum,

Green and roasted Coffees, Sugars and fine Teas, immense stock of canned goods of all kinds, pure Maple Syrup and Sugar, the finest brands of Hams, Breakfast Bacon and Leaf Lard, put up specially for my trade. Pure Buckwheat Flour, Pancake Flour, Whole Wheat Flour, Graham Flour, Cereals of all kinds, Poultry, Games, Oysters, Cranberries, Apples, Oranges, Lemons, Bananas, Figs, Dates, Raisins, Citron, Lemon and Orange Peel, Olives, finest Cream Cheese, Edam Cheese, Pine Apple Cheese, Mince Meat, Preserves, Catsup, fine Pickles—sour and sweet—in fact everything to eat of the very best. In addition, and specially for the holiday trade, I have laid in an immense supply of which will be sold at net cost to my customers as a Christmas treat. And don't forget the Perfection Flour is the best and that my fine blended coffee has no equal.

People from the country are invited to make my house headquarters when in our city. I run two delivery wagons regularly and all goods will be delivered to any part of city promptly. Come if you can, but if you can't come call up PHONE 33.

THE LATE MISS PEALE.

She Was Prominent for Nearly Half a Century in Works of Charity in and About Cincinnati.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

Death yesterday claimed Miss Katherine Allen Peale, who for nearly half a century was prominent in works of charity in and about the city. A few days ago she went on a visit to her sister, Mrs. M. V. Wilson, at Mayeville, Ky., where she died suddenly Tuesday. The funeral will take place Thursday and interment will be in Spring Grove Cemetery.

For upwards of forty years she was noted for her philanthropy, and was interested in all objects of charity. She was a devoted attendant at the Second Presbyterian Church, and her pastor, Rev. E. Trumble Lee, will officiate at the funeral. She was a niece of William H. Allen, a pioneer jeweler, in whose store for many years Herman Duhme, former head of the great jewelry establishment in this city, was employed.

—Mr. John Ryan, a member of the Cincinnati police force, is here to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Mary Ryan, whose death is mentioned elsewhere.

Woman's Horror

Modest women dread to consult a doctor about diseases peculiar to their sex. They have a horror of private examinations and surgical operations. For this reason treatment of dangerous derangements is neglected. But the Wine of Cardui treatment, which can be adopted at home without the knowledge of any one but the patient herself, is now coming into general use. Women who take Wine of Cardui do not have to submit to a physician's local examination nor to a surgical operation. Wine of Cardui cures in the privacy of the home. No publicity, no cutting and torture and no physician or examination, while Wine of Cardui is quietly building up and strengthening the female organs. Menstruation is regulated, the drains of leucorrhoea stopped and the fallen womb restored to its place. The terrible pains which rack the body are but results of the ailments, which yield so readily to the soothing properties of Wine of Cardui. The medicine that cured Miss Garlen will certainly help you.

Wine of Cardui

Rockford, Tenn., Aug. 16, 1899.

I have suffered from womb trouble for five years. Last spring a year ago I was bedfast for six months. I paid $52 to one doctor, and he said he had done all he could for me. I had about given up, but called another doctor, who said I would have to have surgical treatment. I decided I might as well die a natural death as that. I happened to get hold of a Ladies' Birthday Almanac, and decided to try your treatment. In nine days after I commenced taking Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught I could walk across my room, and in three weeks I made myself a dress. This was after my neighbors, and even my brothers and sisters, said I would never be any better. I am now in good health. Miss S. E. GARLEN.
